Naomi Dixon

I am Naomi Dixon and I was born February 6, 1992 to parents Rosetta Gordon and Michael Dixon. I attended Windward Primary before I started attending Camperdown High School in 2004. My hobbies include watching television, listening to music, reading and playing games.

My experience in life so far, has truly been a rough one. There were times when my family and I went to our beds without dinner, there were times when my parents could not find money for me to go to school, so it was either I stayed home or go to school with just my bus fare to return home. In grade seven I was frequently absent from school because of this but as the years went by I learned that in order to be successful we have to make sacrifices. So as I got older I learned to attend school with just my bus fare to return home.

My experiences at Camperdown have truly been unforgettable. In Grade seven, I started as a young immature child and I will be leaving here as a young determined, ambitious young lady who will go after her dreams no matter what it takes. Camperdown taught me that in order to be successful I must be disciplined, determined and hard-working. They also taught me that "Only The Best Is Good Enough", and I should never settle for anything less. Camperdown showed me that hard work really does pay off. In grade 9 I worked really hard, one hundred percent was put into my work and at the end of the term, I came first in my class and was recognized and rewarded by the school.

I would like to attend college to further my studies, as my ambition is to become a Nurse or a Medical Doctor. This may be prevented however, because my parents are having a difficult time finding money for me to attend school, so I cannot even imagine what would happen if I should go to College. I am in need of help to pay the college fees; I know I can do it if I get the chance to.
